FINAL ARGUMENT IN SUPPORT OF STIPULATION FOR DISMISSAL

Arizona Corporation Commission

DOCKETED

APR - 2 2004

DOCKETED BY

1 COMES NOW, David Stafford Johnson ("Johnson"), who respectfully recommends that 2 the Arizona Corporation Commission approve the Stipulation for Dismissal dated February 24, 3 2004 by and among the Phone Company of Arizona, LLP, Frank Tricamo, David Stafford
4 Johnson and the Utilities Division Staff of the Arizona Corporation Commission.

5
6 1. The Staff of the Utilities Division of the Arizona Corporation Commission
7 ("Staff") brought its Complaint ("Complaint") against The Phone Company Management
8 Group, LLC, f/k/a LiveWireNet of Arizona, LLC ("PCMG"), On Systems Technology, LLC
9 ("On Systems"), and its principals, Tim Wetherald, Frank Tricamo, and David Stafford
10 Johnson, on October 21, 2002.

11 2. In its Complaint, as Amended, the Staff questioned the adequacy of PCMG's 12 service to its customers, its compliance with applicable laws, and financial viability, and asserts 13 four claims for relief. Johnson denied all allegations contained in Staff's Complaint, as 14 Amended, as they pertained to him.

15
16 3. Johnson participated in all pre-hearing conferences concerning the docketed
17 matters, in hearings before the ALJ which commenced on November 3, 2003, and later at a 18 reconvened hearing on February 24, 2004.

19 4. Johnson further agreed to speak with Staff in advance of the reconvened
20 February 24, 2004 hearing and fully cooperated with Staff by providing Staff a detailed account 21 of the matters before the ALJ and the Commission in the docketed matters, and by providing 22 Staff with all other information requested by Staff during those discussions.

23
24 5. As a result of Johnson's participation in the conferences and hearings 25 concerning these matters, his cooperation with Staff in providing a detailed account of all 26 matters before the ALJ and this Commission, and his cooperation in testifying before the ALJ,

1 in the docketed matters, Staff concluded that Johnson was not a participant in any wrongdoing
2 alleged in the Complaint, as Amended, and agreed to dismiss Johnson with prejudice from 3 these proceedings.

4
5 6. Johnson hereby recommends to the Commission approval of the Stipulation for 6 Dismissal because such approval is in the public interest. The Stipulation for Dismissal allowed 7 Staff to acquire detailed and substantive information concerning the matters before the ALJ and 8 the Commission in the docketed matters which resulted not only in expedited hearings 9 concerning these matters, but also in a far greater and more accurate understanding by Staff of 10 the facts underlying the Complaint, as Amended. Approval of the Stipulation for Dismissal 11 will further ensure the continued cooperation of Johnson in any ongoing investigation if 12 requested by Staff, thereby ensuring more efficient use of resources.

13 Approval of the Stipulation for Dismissal is also in the public interest since it is not in the 14 public interest to pursue remedies against individuals who are not responsible for the actions 15 which formed the basis for the Complaint, as Amended. Resources of the Commission should 16 be utilized to pursue remedies against individuals and companies who actually are responsible 17 for actions that harm the Arizona consumer, and it is in the public interest to ensure cooperation 18 from individuals who are not responsible for such actions, but are in a position to assist the 19 Commission in enforcing its rules and

20 11. Given that the Staff, based on testimony from Johnson and further discussions 21 with Johnson and information provided Johnson, has concluded that Johnson neither 22 participated in nor is aware of the events that give rise to this action, it is in the public interest
23 that the Stipulation for Dismissal be approved to ensure the continued cooperation of Johnson
24 in any further investigation required to be conducted by Staff in the matters, and in enforcing 25 any penalties assed by the Commission in these matters.
