SBC LONG DISTANCE'S MOTION TO CONTINUE THE HEARING

Southwestern Bell Communications Services, Inc., d/b/a SBC Long Distance, through its undersigned attorney, requests that the hearing scheduled for February 1, 2005 at 10:00 a.m. be continued because of the unavailability of its witness, Norman W. Descoteaux.

In support of this Motion, SBC Long Distance states that Mr. Descoteaux is the Associate Director-Regulatory for SBC Long Distance, and is the person assigned responsibility by the Company to testify at the hearing on its Application. Mr. Descoteaux has responsibility for these types of filings and for testifying at the hearings in various states. Unfortunately, Mr. Descoteaux is going to be out of the country on February 1, 2005 and is unavailable to testify at the scheduled hearing.

1 Mr. Descoteaux is available to testify just about any other day in February, and SBC
2 Long Distance requests that the Administrative Law Judge continue the hearing to a later date
3 in February. SBC Long Distance also requests that the Administrative Law Judge issue a new 4 Procedural Order continuing the hearing and changing the date for publishing notice of the 5 hearing.
