PROCEDURAL ORDER

BY THE COMMISSION:

On February 27, 2004, Autotel filed a Petition for Arbitration, requesting that the Arizona Corporation Commission ("Commission") arbitrate disputes with Qwest Corporation in connection with an interconnection agreement. On November 2, 2004, the Commission issued Decision No. 67408 which decided the disputed issues raised in the arbitration. As part of Decision No. 67408, the Commission ordered the parties to utilize Qwest's proposed agreement as the template.

On December 10, 2004, Autotel filed a Formal Complaint against Qwest. Autotel alleged that the interconnection agreement that Qwest had prepared based on Decision No. 67408 did not comply with the Order because Qwest had inserted a new section which Autotel claimed was not approved in the Commission's Order.

On December 15, 2004, Qwest filed a Request for Procedural Conference and a request to consolidate the Complaint with the Arbitration docket. Qwest claimed that the section that forms the basis of Autotel's complaint contains language that was included elsewhere in Autotel's form of 1 agreement.

2 Pursuant to Procedural Order dated February 11, 2005, the matters were consolidated because
3 the complaint involved an interpretation of Decision No. 67408. A Procedural Conference was set
4 for February 23, 2005.

5 Following the February 23, 2005 Procedural Conference, the parties were able to resolve the 6 dispute that had caused Autotel to file the formal complaint. On March 22, 2005, Autotel filed a
7 "Withdrawal of Formal Complaint."

8 IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that because the parties have been able to consensually
9 resolve their dispute, Autotel's formal complaint, Docket No. T-02051B-04-0884, should be 10 dismissed and the matter administratively closed.

11 DATED this 13th day of April, 2005.
