PROCEDURAL ORDER

BY THE COMMISSION:

In Decision No. 67444 (December 3, 2004), the Arizona Corporation Commission ("Commission") granted OCMC, Inc.'s ("OCMC") application for authority to provide competitive resold interexchange and interLATA and intraLATA alternative operator services ("AOS") subject to compliance with certain conditions.

Additionally, the Commission granted to OCMC a temporary waiver of the zero-minus rules as set forth in Arizona Administrative Code ("A.A.C.") R14-2-1006.A for a period of six months. Decision No. 67444 ordered Staff to review OCMC's performance during the pendency of the temporary waiver and provided that OCMC may file for a permanent waiver at the expiration of the six month period.

On April 28, 2005, OCMC filed a Request to Make Waiver Permanent, by which OCMC requested a permanent waiver of A.A.C. R14-2-1006.A based upon the fact that as of the date of its filing, it was unaware of any customer complaints in Arizona relating to its provision of zero-minus service. OCMC further indicated that it would file additional verification shortly before the June 3, 2005 expiration date.

By Procedural Order dated May 25, 2005, the Commission's Utilities Staff ("Staff") was ordered to file a memorandum, which details not only its findings with regard to OCMC's performance in providing zero-minus services during the past six months but also its

1 recommendation with regard to granting OCMC's request for a permanent waiver of A.A.C. R14-2-
2 1006.A based upon that performance on or before June 17, 2005.

3 On May 25, 2005, OCMC filed a Request for Expedited Issuance of Procedural Order, which
4 requests the issuance of a procedural order to clarify that the temporary waiver is extended pending
5 the issuance of a Decision on the permanent waiver.

6 It is appropriate, therefore, to clarify OCMC's operational status with regard to the provision
7 of zero-minus services pending the issuance of a Decision in this matter.

8 IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that the temporary waiver granted to OCMC in Decision No.
9 67444 shall be extended until such time as a Decision is issued by the Commission regarding 10 OCMC's Request to Make Waiver Permanent.

11 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the Presiding Officer may rescind, alter, amend, or waive
12 any portion of this Procedural Order either by subsequent Procedural Order or by ruling at hearing.

13 DATED this 31st day of May, 2005.
