Can you send those? I think we did all of our analysis based on the flip book (entered the numbers). And even if that is not right, right now I am not able to quickly put my hands on the electronic versions (if we got them). So could you send/resend?

Thanks

Jim

For the most recently received PWCC forecast, can you forward to us the assumptions made by the modeling group? Of particular interest, which I am hoping you can tell me in advance of receipt of assumptions, what is the assumed deferred power balance?

Thanks
Anne
