AZ CORP COMMISSION
DOCUMENT CONTROL

On October 12, 2001, Verizon California, Inc. - Arizona ("Verizon") f/k/a GTE California, Inc. - Arizona, filed an Application for approval of a Resale Agreement between Verizon and NOW Communications, Inc. ("NOW"). The term of the Agreement shall be effective upon Commission approval and shall remain in effect until August 23, 2003. Upon expiration, the Agreement shall remain in force and effect until terminated by either party on ninety (90) days written notice. The Agreement governs the terms and conditions under which Verizon will offer interconnection services to NOW.

The Telecommunications Act of 1996 ("1996 Act") directed incumbent local exchange carriers to make their networks available for interconnection and resale by new entrants to the local exchange market. The 1996 Act provides for interconnection and resale agreements to be concluded by voluntary negotiation. This Agreement between Verizon and NOW was voluntarily negotiated, without resort to arbitration.

Under the terms of the Agreement, Verizon will provide specified local exchange services for Resale to NOW. Generally, Verizon services will be made available to NOW for resale at a ten point nine (10.9) percent discount for residential and business customers.

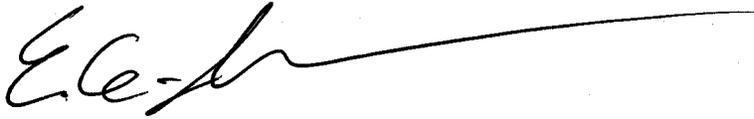

According to the 1996 Act and State Rule, the Commission must approve voluntarily negotiated interconnection and resale agreements if their provisions are non-discriminatory and in the public interest. Staff has reviewed the Agreement and finds it to be non-discriminatory and in the public interest. Verizon is offering the same terms and conditions of the Agreement to all other interested parties. The Agreement is in the public interest because it will act to further competition in the local exchange market in Arizona.

THE COMMISSION

November 28, 2001

Since there are no grounds for rejection of the Agreement pursuant to Section 252(e)(2)(A) of the 1996 Act, Staff recommends that the Commission approve the Interconnection Agreement between Verizon and NOW.
