Subject: Your request for a better justification by Unisource for the huge gas bill increases.

OR, we hope, adjustments.

The philosophy of Unisource seems to parallel the dark humor of Ashleigh Brilliant, Creator of "Pot Shots", in one of his syndicated cartoons - - -
"Everybody is different -- that*s why we treat them all the same."

IF we were a business, we might be able to pass through the increased cost of heat energy, which is a necessity for any kind of life quality.

However, retirement income barely keeps up with reasonable cost of living increases.

Unisource*s increase cannot in any way be justified as a reasonable increase, in fact, it*s outrageous!!!

Why must those of us, who don*t have a way to increase our income because of age, infirmity, or misfortune, take the bite - just because Unisource is big, has a monopoly, got permission, and is located down south, where they don*t have to deal with the cold temperatures up here in Prescott.?

THANK YOU VERY MUCH FOR GOING TO BAT FOR US !!!

Linus Heydon
