NOTICE OF FILING TERMINATION OF RESALE AGREEMENTS IN THE STATE OF ARIZONA

Qwest Corporation ("Qwest") hereby files Notice of Termination of Resale Agreements for the above-captioned dockets. The terms of these Agreements have expired, and Qwest's attempts to notify each company regarding renegotiation or termination via certified mail have been unsuccessful, as explained in Exhibit A. Additionally, Arizona Corporation Commission records

1 indicate that each company's authority to do business in Arizona has either been revoked or has
2 expired.

3 Therefore, Qwest hereby provides notification of termination of Agreements in the above
4 captioned dockets.

Arizona Corporation Commission

Subject: Termination of Resale Agreements in the State of Arizona

The terms of the Resale Agreements (Agreements) between Qwest and the following Companies have expired. Qwest has allowed the expired Agreements to be valid on a month-to-month basis. However, Qwest's records indicate that these Companies are currently not purchasing services or facilities under the Agreements.

Qwest has tried to notify each of the Companies of our intention to re-negotiate or terminate the Agreement. The notifications sent to the Companies via certified mail, were returned undeliverable. Other searches for a mailing location or contact point for these Companies were also unsuccessful. Qwest hereby provides notification to the Commission that Qwest has terminated these Agreements.

Companies

Convergent Communications Services, Inc.
Federal Transtel, Inc. (Chapter 11)
Knight Communications, Inc.
Quick-Tel Communications, Inc.

Sincerely,
