Denise M. Leyshon

I Denise Leyshon am divorcing my husband David. J. Leyshon after I have found out how dishonest and crooked he is and seems to have no empathy towards other people, targeting people he knows, including embezzling his own fathers 401 k. I never knew David was fired from Synergy in 2004 he lied to me about that, when I asked him why he didn't get pay checks from Synergy anymore he told me that his checks went right to his e-trade account and I never thought more about it. I thought we were doing very well financially, as most stock brokers do. I never had access to the e-trade account, knew the pass code anything like that. I did wonder why he had the Leyshon Capitol Management when he worked for Synergy? And he would say that is the way it has to be because they are a private company with no benefits offered. I believed him again. I really was never interested in his job. I raised my kids and worked part-time and, drove around to games and all the things good mothers do. David also had the mail box key and if anything came in the mail to him that was bad I didn't see it. I never looked at his Leyshon Capitol one checking account and never even made a deposit, nor did look at our bank statements or follow the bank statements on line. I just kept track of my checkbook, of what I thought was in there which was my job and 200.00 a week he said he put in the account. I suspected things back in March 2006 or so when checks started to bounce, payments were late on our house and creditors started to call, Then I demanded to have the mailbox key and have him show me how to look at our Wells Fargo account on line and the pass code for the Wells Fargo account to do so. He started to put larger sums in our account to pay bills and again I thought it was our money taken from the e-trade account, I never in a million years thought he would pool all the monies from other people into one account. A retard knows you can't do that. I was too trusting and ignorant about things I was not interested in. A lot of people trusted him with their money, family friends people he seemed to know looking back, are the ones he preyed on it seems,

It was very troubling to me how he took advantage of his own father like he did. and Jim Redd to know him for so long and take his calls and lie to him over and over like he did makes me sick. I would like David Leyshon my soon to be x- husband get what he deserves and be punished for taking advantage of peoples money like he did.

Sincerely, Denise Leyshon
