NOTICE OF REVOCATION OF REQUEST FOR SERVICE

The owners of the area known as Skyline Ranch no longer wish to be included within Johnson Utilities Company's certificated area. Said owners are revoking their request for service previously submitted to Johnson Utilities Company. The Skyline Ranch owners originally intervened in this proceeding to protect their property interests. At that time, the Skyline Ranch owners were

1 negotiating with Johnson Utilities Company to provide water and sewer service to their property, and 2 were uncertain what results those negotiations would produce. Negotiations have terminated; the 3 Skyline Ranch owners and Johnson Utilities did not reach an agreement on the terms and conditions
4 of a main extension agreement. Therefore, the Skyline Ranch owners have concluded that they would 5 prefer not to be included within an expanded certificated area for Johnson Utilities.

6 The Skyline Ranch owners plan to petition Pinal County to form a county improvement
7 district to provide water and sewer to their lands. For that reason, the Skyline Ranch owners do not 8 wish to be included in any certificated areas of any private water or sewer company. Of note, the 9 Skyline Ranch owners recently received notice that H2O, Inc. is also petitioning to serve water to their 10 property. The owners of Skyline Ranch have not requested H2O, Inc. to serve water to Skyline 11 Ranch. As stated above, the Skyline Ranch owners are making plans to provide their own water and 12 sewer service. Therefore, these intervenors respectfully request that Skyline Ranch be deleted from 13 any expansions to the certificated areas of the petitioning utilities.
