The Commission will determine the appropriate relief to be granted based on the evidence of record in this proceeding. The Commission is not bound by the proposals made by the Company, the Commission's Staff, or any intervenors, and therefore the relief granted in this proceeding may differ from that requested by the Company. The application, report of the Commission's Utilities Division Staff, and any written comments to the staff report will be available for inspection during regular business hours at the offices of the Commission located at 1200 West Washington Street, Phoenix, Arizona, 85007, and at the offices of the Company, 34647 N. 10th Street, Phoenix, Arizona, 85027, and on the internet via the Commission website (www.azcc.gov) using the e-docket function.

The law provides for an open public hearing at which, under appropriate circumstances, interested parties may intervene in the proceedings and participate as a party. Intervention shall be permitted to any person entitled by law to intervene and having a direct and substantial interest in the matter. Persons desiring to intervene must file a written motion to intervene with the Commission and send such motion to the Company or its counsel and to all parties of record, and which at the minimum, shall contain the following:

1. The name, address, and telephone number of the proposed intervenor and of any party upon whom service of documents is to be made if different than the intervenor.
2. A short statement of the proposed intervenor's interest in the proceeding (e.g. a customer of the Company, a shareholder of the Company, a competitor, etc.)
3. A statement certifying that a copy of the motion to intervene has been mailed to the Company or its counsel and to all parties of record in the case.

The granting of motions to intervene must be governed by A.A.C. R14-3-105, except that all motions to intervene must be filed on or before February 9, 2007. The granting of intervention, among other things, entitles a party to present sworn evidence at the hearing and to cross-examine other witnesses. Failure to intervene will not preclude any interested person or entity from appearing at the hearing and making a statement on their own behalf. You will not, however, receive any further notice of the proceeding unless requested by you. Please check with the Commission for any changes to the scheduled hearing date.
