Mr. Tillman wanted again to voice his opinion for the rehearing of decision 69664. He wanted the Commission to know that he was never notified properly. He just was reading the newspaper and read about the hearing that was been held at the ACC. He mentioned that he felt someone drop the ball in notifying the customers to the commission them plenty of time to plan accordingly.

Investigator's Comments and Disposition:

2/25/08 Per Bard Morton who was present at the hearing. He mentioned that the commission had a full house present. I reviewed the Docketed ACC Procedural Order ("PO") dated December 12, 2007.

I called Mr. Tillman back and read to him the PO. He apologize and stated that he missed it. I provided information about the listen line. He thanked me for the information and the quick call back. He was glad that his opinion would be docketed again for the record.
