RE: Staff's Letter of Insufficiency and First Set of Data Requests to Computer Network
Technology Corporation
Docket No. T-04221A-07-0685

Dear Mr. McDermott:

On December 13, 2007, Computer Network Technology Corporation ("CNT") filed an application to cancel their Certificate of Convenience and Necessity ("CC&N") to provide telecommunications services in Arizona. The Application submitted is not sufficient. This data request lists the information Staff needs to complete its analysis of your Application.

For purposes of this data request set, the words "CNT", "Applicant", "the Company", "you", and "your" refer to Computer Network Technology Corporation, any representative, including every person and/or entity acting with, under the control of, or on behalf of Computer Network Technology Corporation. For each answer, please identify by name, title, e-mail address, telephone number and address each person providing information that forms the basis for the response provided.

These data requests are continuing, and your answers or any documents supplied in response to these data requests should be supplemented with any additional information or documents that come to your attention after you have provided your initial responses.

Please provide Docket Control with the information being requested within 10 days of the date of this letter. Mail an Original plus 13 copies to Docket Control, Arizona Corporation Commission, 1200 W. Washington Street, Phoenix, AZ 85007-2927. If no response is received, Staff will recommend that the Application be terminated. If the Application is terminated, the Applicant cannot discontinue the telecommunications services that it is authorized to provide in Arizona, until such time as a new application is filed with and approved by the Commission.
