DOCKET NO. E-01750A-05-0579
BUREAU OF INDIAN AFFAIRS' WITNESS LIST

The Bureau of Indian Affairs ("BIA") intends to call the following witnesses at the September 3, 2008 hearing:

- 1. James C. Walker Facilities Manager
BIA, Truxton Canyon Agency

Mr. Walker is expected to testify about the BIA's use of, and payment for, electricity supplied by the subject distribution line; repairs required on the distribution line, both before and after Mohave Electric Cooperative's ("MEC") purported quit claim of the line; and MEC's retail customers along the line.

- 2. James E. Williams Superintendent
BIA, Truxton Canyon Agency

Mr. Williams is expected to testify about construction of the 13 mile spur to the Bar Four area of Havasupai Reservation; the amounts paid by BIA to MEC, including for electricity metered at the Long Mesa point of delivery (and later metered at Nelson substation) and at the Thornton Tower; MEC's purported quitclaim of the distribution line and the BIA's response thereto; that BIA paid MEC under protest after the quit claim; MEC's retail customers along the line; and BIA being forced to pay for electricity used by MEC's other retail customers.
