20 The Arizona Center for Law in the Public Interest is a domestic nonprofit corporation 21 formed in part to promote conservation or natural beauty, to protect the environment, personal 22 health or other biological values and to promote consumer interests. The Center was established 23 in 1974 and since that time has been involved in numerous proceedings involving air and water
24 quality issues. It has also participated extensively in proceedings at the Arizona Corporation 25 Commission to promote consumer interests. It is currently involved in litigation against the Arizona Corporation Commission involving the Commission's adoption of the Electric

1 Competition Rules and approval of a settlement agreement involving Arizona Public Service
2 Company.
