("ACI Holdings") on October 4, 2006. The Purvis Respondents filed an Answer on October 11, 2006. The Keaton Respondents and ACI Holdings filed an Answer on October 16, 2006. The Purvis Respondents, Keaton Respondents and ACI Holdings are not subject to this Order.

An administrative hearing was held in the matter on November 13-15, 2007, November 26-29, 2007, December 3-6, 2007, January 22-23, 2008, and January 28-30, 2008. Neither the Wolfe Respondents nor NCGMI were present for any portion of the administrative hearing.

On July 23, 2008, the Division filed a Motion to Set Restitution Amount and Administrative Penalty.

Having considered the entire record herein and being fully advised in the premises, the Commission finds, concludes, and orders that:

FINDINGS OF FACT

1. NCGMI is a Nevada corporation sole<sup>1</sup> with its principal place of business in Maricopa County, Arizona. NCGMI is not registered with the Commission's Corporations Division to conduct business within or from Arizona.

&lt;sup>1</sup> Nevada Revised Statute § 84.010 defines a "corporation sole" as a corporation "formed for the purpose of acquiring, holding, or disposing of church or religious society property, for the benefit of religion for works of charity, and for public worship, in the manner provided in this chapter."

him as "donations" rather than investments, even though the investor expected a return.

- 13. Mr. Wolfe advised some offerees and investors to form their own corporation sole. Mr. Wolfe charged investors a fee to prepare the documents necessary for the investor to form a corporation sole.
- 14. Mr. Wolfe told offerees and investors that a corporation sole would reduce the income tax liability they may be required to pay on their investment returns. For those investors who formed corporation soles, Mr. Wolfe represented to them that he would make the investor's investment returns payable to the investor's corporation sole rather than the investor.
- 15. Mr. Wolfe deposited investor funds from the bridge loan program into a NCGMI bank account and, in some instances, used the proceeds from the account to pay investor returns and pay other expenses which investors had not approved.

ACI HOLDINGS' COMMON STOCK OFFERING

- 16. Mr. Wolfe offered and sold stock in ACI Holdings, an Arizona corporation, to offerees and investors ("Common Stock Offering").
- 17. Mr. Wolfe represented to offerees and investors that the price for the stock in ACI Holdings was $.80 per share. Mr. Wolfe told offerees and investors that the value of ACI Holdings' stock would increase four to five times its purchase price after the company became publicly traded in 12 to 18 months from the date of their investment.
- 18. Mr. Wolfe represented to offerees and investors who purchased company stock in ACI Holdings that their investment was guaranteed.
- 19. Mr. Wolfe told offerees and investors who wanted to invest in ACI Holdings to open a self-directed individual retirement account (IRA) and deposit their investment funds into the IRA account. Mr. Wolfe then instructed offerees and investors to designate Respondent Edward Purvis as the designated representative for the IRA account. This gave Respondent Edward Purvis authority to invest the funds in the IRA account on behalf of the investor.
- 20. The Bridge Loan Investment Offering and the Common Stock Offering were not registered pursuant to Article 6 or 7 of the Securities Act, nor were the securities exempt from registration.
  - 21. NCGMI was not registered as dealer or salesman under Article 9 of the Securities Act.

- b) sending investors NCGMI monthly statements which falsely showed their investments were increasing in value, thus allowing Respondents to continue to perpetuate their fraud;
- c) representing to offerees and investors that stock in ACI Holdings would increase four or five times its original purchase price when, in fact, the value of the company's stock had decreased;
- d) representing to investors that they would receive returns on their investment from Mr. Wolfe's personal assets when, in fact, investors were repaid from sources other than Mr. Wolfe's assets; and
- e) representing to at least one investor that the value of a short-term bridge loan in which the investor invested had increased when, in fact, the bridge loan had not been repaid.
- 8. Pursuant to A.R.S. § 25-215, the marital community of Gregg L. Wolfe and Allison A. Wolfe should be held liable for any Order of restitution and penalties ordered hereunder.
- 9. Mr. Wolfe and NCGMI's conduct is grounds for a cease and desist order pursuant to A.R.S. § 44-2032.
- 10. Mr. Wolfe and NCGMI's conduct is grounds for an order of restitution pursuant to A.R.S. § 44-2032.
- 11. Mr. Wolfe and NCGMI's conduct is grounds for administrative penalties under § 44-2036.
