I.

FINDINGS OF FACT

- BUCHANAN, CRD# 2452897, was at all pertinent times a resident of Chandler, Arizona, and a registered securities salesman in Arizona. BUCHANAN was affiliated with LPL Financial Corporation ("LPL") from June 1, 2006, until he was discharged on or around March 21, 2008. LPL reported on the Central Registration Depository ("CRD") of the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority, Inc. ("FINRA") that BUCHANAN's discharge was based upon the firm's review of "documents reflecting investments not held or offered by the firm," including "documents reflecting payments by individuals to Mr. BUCHANAN directly" and "documents reflecting purported investment statements not authorized or approved by the firm." LPL discharged BUCHANAN based upon the same transactions that are the subject of this action. Prior to his association with LPL, BUCHANAN was affiliated with American Express Financial Advisors, Inc. ("AEFA"), now known as Ameriprise Financial Services, Inc. ("Ameriprise"), from February 2, 1994, until he voluntarily terminated his association on January 23, 2006. BUCHANAN was at all pertinent times licensed with the Arizona Department of Insurance as a producer, authorized to sell accident/health and life insurance, and variable life/variable annuity products.
- LORI A. BUCHANAN was at all relevant times the spouse of BUCHANAN; LORI 2. A. BUCHANAN may be referred to as "Respondent Spouse." Respondent Spouse is joined in this action under A.R.S. § 44-2031(C) solely for purposes of determining the liability of the marital community.
- At all times relevant, BUCHANAN was acting for his own benefit and for the 3. benefit or in furtherance of BUCHANAN and Respondent Spouse's marital community.
- Beginning as early as 2001, BUCHANAN, operating out of Chandler, Arizona, 4. engaged in an elaborate fraudulent scheme to offer to sell various types of securities, including debentures, which he described as "debentures with conversion privileges" and "7% Certificates."

70751 Decision No.

- 12. BUCHANAN persuaded customers of his dealers to sell other securities that they owned, including bank certificates of deposit and mutual fund accounts, or to liquidate IRA account investments to purchase the certificates and debentures.
- 13. BUCHANAN directed customers to give him personal checks payable to BUCHANAN, which violated his dealers' rules prohibiting registered securities salesmen from accepting direct payment of funds from customers for the purchase of securities.
- 14. In at least one instance, a customer questioned BUCHANAN regarding his authority to accept direct payments of funds, and BUCHANAN told the customer to that her money was secure if she made the payment to him as "CFP," which she did. BUCHANAN was not a certified financial planner, and therefore, was not authorized to use the "CFP" designation.
- 15. BUCHANAN had some customers sign dealer forms entitled "Wired Funds Authorization," in which BUCHANAN represented that he was transferring customer funds from customers' brokerage accounts to brokerage accounts of the companies purportedly issuing the securities, for example, "Clean Coal Technologies, Inc."
- 16. BUCHANAN told customers that they would receive official ownership documents after their purchases. In some cases, customers did not receive official "certificates" of ownership, but were not concerned after they started receiving monthly statements or interest payments from BUCHANAN. Upon information and belief, BUCHANAN did not use the money obtained from these customers to purchase securities in their names, but deposited their funds in his own bank account and paid the "interest" payments to them out of his own account.
- 17. BUCHANAN effected securities transactions that were not recorded on the records of the dealers with whom BUCHANAN was registered at the time of the transactions. This sales practice is referred to as "selling away" and is prohibited conduct in the securities industry, and is defined as a dishonest and unethical conduct under the Arizona Securities Act.

Decision No. 70751

18. On or about March 21, 2008, LPL discharged BUCHANAN after learning from the Maricopa County Sheriff's Office that BUCHANAN was under criminal investigation for alleged fraudulent conduct involving securities customers, relating to these purported securities transactions.

- 19. After learning that LPL discharged BUCHANAN, some customers attempted to verify their ownership of the securities, and learned that there was no record of any purchase of securities in their names. These customers do not know where or how BUCHANAN used their funds, which they paid to him for the purchase of debentures and certificates.
- 20. To date, investigation of BUCHANAN's unauthorized conduct has revealed at least 23 Arizona customers who paid over $4,500,000.00 for certificates and debentures purportedly sold through BUCHANAN's dealers, including a Tempe Church, which invested $1,000,000.00 in purported HEI certificates or debentures. Other customers who paid BUCHANAN funds for these purported energy securities included members of BUCHANAN's Tempe Church, where BUCHANAN served as a Board Member, and Mesa United Way employees, who met BUCHANAN as early as 1997, when BUCHANAN worked for American Express and handled the Mesa United Way Retirement Plans.
- 21. In connection with the offer or sale of securities within or from Arizona, Respondents directly or indirectly: (i) employed a device, scheme, or artifice to defraud; (ii) made untrue statements of material fact or omitted to state material facts that were necessary in order to make the statements made not misleading in light of the circumstances under which they were made; or (iii) engaged in transactions, practices, or courses of business that operated or would operate as a fraud or deceit upon offerees and investors. BUCHANAN's conduct includes, but is not limited to, the following:
- a) Misrepresenting that securities transactions were effected through BUCHANAN's dealers;
