LLM 1.1 In its letter to the Arizona Corporation Commission ("Commission"), LDMI Telecommunications, Inc. d/b/a Cavalier Telephone d/b/a Cavalier Business Communications ("LDMI" or the "Company") indicates that it has no customers in Arizona nor does it have any outstanding obligations in the form of advanced payments or deposits, therefore customer notice is not applicable. In reference to these statements, please respond to the following questions:

- (A) Did LDMI ever have any customers in Arizona? If so, please indicate the date the last customer the Company had in Arizona left its network.
- (B) Based on the statement above, please clarify if LDMI provided any legal notice of the Application to cancel telecommunications services in any area, billing insert or publication in Arizona as required in the Arizona Administrative Code ("A.C.C.") rule R14-2-1107.
- (C) If LDMI has no customers to notify because it has no current customers in Arizona, please provide an affidavit attesting to this effect.

Response:

- (A) LDMI has had some customers in Arizona. The last presubscribed Arizona customer left LDMI's network on April 21, 2009, prior to the Company's application to cancel its CC&N and tariff.
- (B) The Company did not provide legal notice of this Application to cancel its telecommunications offerings because it did not have any customers at the time it filed the Application; thus, there were no "affected" customers to notify.
- (C) See Attachment 1.

LLM 1.2 Please indicate the state(s) in which the Applicant currently operates.

Response:

LDMI currently operates in the following states: CA, FL, GA, HI, IL, IN, MA, MD, MI, NC, NJ, NY, OH, PA, TX, and WI.
