DOCKET NO. S-03269A-99-0000
DECISION NO. 62427
ORDER TO CEASE AND DESIST
AND ORDER FOR ADMINISTRATIVE PENALTIES
RE: RONALD JOHN HOOVER

I.

INTRODUCTION

On May 18, 1999, the Securities Division ("Division") of the Arizona Corporation Commission ("Commission") filed a Notice of Opportunity for Hearing Regarding Proposed Order for Relief ("Notice") against the above Respondents. The Notice specified that Respondents would be afforded an opportunity for an administrative hearing on this matter upon filing a written request with Docket Control of the Commission within ten days of receipt of the Notice. RONALD JOHN HOOVER ("HOOVER") was served a copy of the Notice on December 18, 1999, by personal service upon his wife at his home address as stated above. HOOVER failed to request a hearing.

II.

FINDINGS OF FACT

1
2
3 1. RONALD JOHN HOOVER, CRD #2308082, whose last known Arizona address
4 was 4215 N. Civic Center Blvd., #145, Scottsdale, AZ 85251, and who currently resides at 706
5 William Dawes, Big Water, UT 84741, was at all relevant times a salesman for an entity known as
6 Plus More Trust ("PMT"). HOOVER was licensed to sell securities in Arizona from January 29,
7 1996 through May 6, 1998, at which time HOOVER voluntarily terminated his license. During the
8 time HOOVER was licensed, he was affiliated with WMA Securities of Duluth, GA. At all relevant
9 times, HOOVER was a managing director, trustee, and salesman for PMT.

10 2. Beginning around November 1997 through at least April 1998, HOOVER offered
11 and sold investment opportunities in the form of "Private Loan Contracts" between the investor as
12 "lender" and PMT as "borrower" (the "PMT program"). Investors who provided PMT with funds
13 were promised from 3 to 10% return per month on their investment for a period of 12 months.
14 Investors were told that they could roll over their monthly returns, or a portion of them, to 15 accumulate an even greater total on which to calculate the monthly interest. Investors were also 16 provided with a repayment schedule that allowed for monthly withdrawals during the course of the
17 PMT program.

18 3. Investors were told that their money would be used by PMT to invest in "medium
19 term notes" issued by a top European bank. The notes would then be traded on secondary markets
20 at substantial spreads, producing returns, which would allow PMT to pay high interest to investors.

21 4. Investors were told that the trading of medium term notes was "very much an insider
22 game, thoroughly known and understood by a privileged few." Those connected with the European
23 financial institutions were under "non-disclosure covenants for years." Thus, investors were told
24 that there was not any publicity about the PMT program and how transactions were conducted.
25 Only those "invited" could participate in PMT's program.

26

1 5. Investors received a "Private Loan Contract," a one page sample "loan repayment
2 schedule" and information about "High Yield Private Placements," before they invested. Investors
3 were not required to contribute to the management of their money in the PMT program. Investors
4 were given no information about who would manage their money, or where it would be deposited.
5 Investors were not provided with any track record for the PMT program, nor were they given any
6 financial statements or other background information about PMT or its principals.

7 6. At least 33 investors invested at least $1,091,500 in the PMT program.

8 7. Some investors received monthly interest payments on their investment for a period
9 of three to seven months. Several of those investors decided to invest again after receiving
10 payments. After receiving monthly payments, some investors provided information about the PMT
11 program to friends and family members who also invested. The majority of investors decided to 12 "roll over" their monthly interest payments into their original investment. Those investors received
13 no payments back from PMT.

14 8. As the due dates for investors' 12-month contracts matured, investors who made
15 inquiry were told that there were delays in returning investor funds. Some investors were told that 16 the funds were being retrieved from overseas, or that the funds had reached the United States, but 17 were being held in New York, or that Respondent James Bredeson was on his way across the 18 country, paying investors as he passed through their cities on his way to Phoenix. By August 1998,
19 PMT had closed its business and Respondents did not return telephone calls.

20 9. HOOVER sold investments in the PMT program totaling $528,500 for which he
21 received $14,450 in commissions. By Order dated November 23, 1998, the Arizona Corporation
22 Commission entered into a Consent with WMA Securities, whereby PMT investors, who dealt with
23 Respondents, were repaid their principal plus interest as a result of, among other things, WMA
24 Securities' failure to supervise Respondents.

III.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

2
3 1. The Commission has jurisdiction over these matters pursuant to Article XV of the 4 Arizona Constitution and the Securities Act of Arizona, A.R.S. § 44-1801, et seq. (Securities Act”).

5 2. From on or about November 1997, RONALD JOHN HOOVER offered and/or sold
6 securities in the form of notes, investment contracts or evidences of indebtedness, within and/or
7 from Arizona.

8 3. The securities referred to above were not registered under A.R.S. §§ 44-1871
9 through 44-1875, or 44-1891 through 44-1902; were not securities for which a notice filing has been
10 made under A.R.S. § 44-3321; were not exempt under A.R.S. §§ 44-1843 or 44-1843.01; were not
11 offered or sold in exempt transactions under A.R.S. § 44-1844; and were not exempt under any rule
12 or order promulgated by the Commission. This conduct violated A.R.S. § 44-1841.

13 4. In connection with the offers and sales of securities within and/or from Arizona,
14 RONALD JOHN HOOVER directly or indirectly: (i) employed a device, scheme or artifice to 15 defraud; (ii) made untrue statements of material fact or omitted to state material facts which were 16 necessary in order to make the statements made not misleading in light of the circumstances under 17 which they were made; and (iii) engaged in transactions, practices or courses of business which
18 operated or would operate as a fraud or deceit upon offerees and investors. HOOVER'S conduct
19 includes, but is not limited to, the following:

20 a) HOOVER failed to provide investors with any information about the background
21 and experience of PMT or its principals;

22 b) HOOVER failed to provide investors with the names, background and experience
23 of the individuals or institutions who would purportedly be trading medium term
24 notes with investor money;

25 c) HOOVER failed to provide investors with any accounting for the use of their
26 funds, or with any source of repayment;

- 1 d) HOOVER failed to disclose any risks in investing in the PMT program;
- 2 e) HOOVER failed to disclose fees or commissions connected with the sale of the
- 3 PMT program;
- 4 f) HOOVER failed to tell investors that the PMT program had not been approved
- 5 for sale by their dealer, WMA Securities, and that he was in effect "selling away"
- 6 from the firm by promoting the PMT program;
- 7 g) HOOVER misrepresented the PMT program as being a high yield, exclusive
- 8 trading program between European financial institutions, when in fact, such
- 9 programs do not exist in the legitimate financial markets.

10 This conduct violated A.R.S. § 44-1991.

11 IV.
