From Richard Dorman / Docket # S-20702A-09-0460

In response:

2. I never offered or sold securities. I never told anyone I was a securities broker. I offered assistance in trying to get people funds for projects through private placement. I told everyone I talked with this was extremely risky and I did not promise or guarantee any results. I also told everyone if you if they did not have the money to lose then don't gamble. No promise or guarantee of any results. Never did I say or act like this was any kind of a securities transaction.

4. I understand because I am married that Rebecca Dorman is names. I want to be clear that my wife, Rcbceca Dorman had nothing to do with this or any type of deals.

8. I never sold securities. I offered to help get Kathy Dies placed into a private placement program. I do not know who she got her money from or how many people were involved.

9. This is true and I never said or acted like a securities broker or salesman.

11. Never did I advertise for investors. I did advertise that I could possibly help fund projects.

12. I never stated investment type programs

15. We met a group of approximately 20 people and talked about private placement programs. That this is an extremely risky thing to get involved in. that nothing is promised or guaranteed, that I was not a securities broker or agent.

19. I never said anything would result in a payout. I told them they could end up in a program that was worthless. I gave them best case and worse case from what I knew.

24. There were several loans made from Elysium to myself and Mike Ring. There was a total of $50,000.00 loaned to each of us before Kathleen Dies wired her funds into our escrow account.

25. $250,000.00 was wired into Billie Davis Escrow to be placed into a private placement program that would pay out $3,000,000.00 to be paid out November 3rd, 2008.

29 I never offered or sold securities.

32. I never offered or sold securities

34. I never offered or sold securities
