Dear Sharon:

Pursuant to our conversation of this morning, this will confirm that my clients have no objection to continuing hearing in the above referenced once again so that the final settlement papers can be circulated and signed. In this regard, this will further confirm that the parties have indeed reached a resolution subject only to signature and Commission vote.

If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Very truly yours,

I would like to file a Motion to continue the September 24 hearing date due to the fact that the consents will not be considered until after that date. We will be submitting them today to be placed on the next open meeting agenda set for October 2. We are close to a settlement with Accelerated, but have no final documents to place on the open meeting. If you provide your assent, I will include stipulation language in the Motion. Thanks.
Sharon
