DOCKET NO. S-03415A-01-0000

RESPONSE TO REQUEST
FOR CONTINUANCE

Arizona Corporation Commission
DOCKETED

SEP 19 2001

DOCKETED BY mac

On September 17, 2001, Respondent David French filed a request for a continuance on the basis that he needed additional time in which to hire a lawyer. While the Securities Division ("Division") certainly does not oppose the right of any respondent to be represented by counsel at a hearing, it does oppose the request for a continuance. The Notice in this case was filed in May. Certainly it would seem that Mr. French had adequate time to hire counsel in that time. Additionally, Mr. French does not state what would happen in the next six weeks that would then allow him to hire counsel.

1
2 If the Hearing Division does decide a continuance is warranted, the Division requests that the
3 time given be limited to one month or less.

4 Given the short time frame before the scheduled hearing in this matter and the need for
5 witnesses to rearrange their schedules, the Division requests that the Hearing Division decide this
6 matter as soon as reasonable. If a telephonic hearing on Mr. French's Motion would be beneficial, the 7 Division is available for such a hearing today or tomorrow.
