Docket E-03661A-98-0674

Docket E-03646A-98-0626

Dear Chairman Irvin:

I read with interest your comments in yesterday's Tucson Citizen wherein you stated that "The rules favor the utilities at the expense of the consumer" and "The vast majority of (changes) today were offered by the utilities and not the consumers."

Can you please direct me to your amendments that were made on behalf of the consumer? I don't recall any effort by you to make changes or to engage on the issues.

If you think there is a better way, I'd like to hear your suggestions. What I know is that your efforts last year were stayed by Justice Jones and were opposed by nearly everyone, except the utilities.

As we move forward, I expect to see amendments from you to correct any deficiencies that you believe are inherent in the rules.

Sincerely,

Carl J. Kunasek
