I. FINDINGS OF FACT

2 1. New York Networks, Inc., formerly known as Jubilee Acquisition Corporation and 3 Caliper Acquisition Corporation, was formed in Delaware in or around March 1999. The entity was 4 administratively dissolved in March 2008 for failure to pay franchise taxes.

5 2. On or about November 3, 2002, David E. Walsh ("Walsh") filed a Form 3 with the 6 Securities and Exchange Commission on behalf of New York Networks, Inc., indicating that he was 7 the beneficial owner of 42,795,000 shares of New York Networks, Inc. common stock and further
8 represented that he was the Director and President of New York Networks, Inc. On or about 9 November 5, 2002, Walsh filed a Form 13D with the Securities and Exchange Commission on 10 behalf of New York Networks, Inc. setting forth that the 42,795,000 shares of common stock of 11 New York Networks, Inc. had been issued to Walsh in exchange for all the outstanding shares of 12 New York Network, Inc., a Nevada corporation owned by Walsh. Upon information and belief, the 13 Nevada corporation referred to is The New York Network, Inc.

14 3. The New York Network, Inc. was formed in Nevada on or around June 2002 and its 15 corporate status was revoked by the state of Nevada on June 30, 2008.

16 4. The articles of incorporation for The New York Network, Inc. indicate Walsh was 17 the President, Director, Treasurer and Secretary.

18 5. CHRISTOPHER A. JENSEN ("JENSEN"), at all times relevant, was a resident of 19 California.

20 6. RODOLFO PRECIADO, aka Rudy Preciado ("PRECIADO"), at all times relevant,
21 was a resident of California.

22 7. JULIE SHAYNE JENSEN was, at all times relevant, the spouse of Respondent
23 JENSEN, and LINDA MARIE PRECIADO was, at all times relevant, the spouse of Respondent
24 PRECIADO (JULIE SHAYNE JENSEN and LINDA MARIE PRECIADO may be referred to 25 collectively as "Respondent Spouses"). Respondent Spouses are joined in this action under A.R.S.
26 § 44-2031(C) solely for purposes of determining the liability of the marital communities.

1 8. At all times relevant, Respondents JENSEN and PRECIADO were acting for their 2 own benefit and for the benefit of or in furtherance of their and Respondent Spouses' respective 3 marital communities.

4 9. Beginning as early as 2006, JENSEN and PRECIADO were involved in the offer
5 and sale of unregistered securities in the form of common stock and common stock purchase
6 warrants ("warrants") to eight Arizona investors in an amount totaling $420,000.

7 10. In early September 2006, 10-15 prospective investors attended what was described 8 as an informational meeting regarding a potentially lucrative investment opportunity at the 9 Camelback Ritz-Carlton hotel in Phoenix, Arizona. JENSEN and PRECIADO attended the 10 meeting at which Walsh gave a sales presentation related to the offer and sale of common stock
11 and common stock purchase warrants in The New York Networks, Inc.

12 11. JENSEN and PRECIADO were responsible for setting up a meeting at which there
13 was a presentation at a hotel in Phoenix and paid for the expenses associated with the meeting.

14 12. JENSEN and PRECIADO attended meetings with prospective investors at 15 restaurants and after individuals had invested, JENSEN and PRECIADO kept investors informed 16 as to the status of their investments.

17 13. Offering materials supplied to investors, including a confidential private placement
18 memorandum, set forth that The New York Networks, Inc. is a Delaware corporation whose sole
19 purpose is to acquire the assets and assume certain liabilities of New York Networks, Inc., a 20 Nevada corporation, and its subsidiaries, and of Mad Engine Inc., a California corporation.

21 14. In fact, according to the Delaware Division of Corporations, there is no Delaware
22 corporation named The New York Networks, Inc., and New York Networks, Inc., was formed in 23 Delaware, not Nevada.

24 15. In exchange for their investment, investors were issued shares of common stock and 25 warrants. According to the stock certificates received by investors, the common stock and warrants
26

1 being issued are that of The New York Networks, Inc., the entity represented as being incorporated
2 in Delaware.

3 16. Based upon information provided to them, in part, by others, including Walsh,
4 JENSEN and PRECIADO informed prospective investors that New York Networks, Inc. was on 5 the verge of acquiring the assets and assuming the liabilities of both Mad Engine, Inc., a producer
6 of T-shirts, knit tops, jackets and pajamas both for itself and private label, and The New York
7 Network, Inc. and its subsidiaries.

8 17. Based upon information provided to them, in part, by others, including Walsh,
9 JENSEN and PRECIADO told investors that Walsh and New York Networks, Inc. would make a 10 public offering of securities immediately after the acquisition of Mad Engine, Inc. and The New 11 York Network, Inc.

12 18. JENSEN and PRECIADO represented to investors that Walsh was personally
13 involved in closing the transaction to acquire Mad Engine and The New York Network, Inc. and 14 complete the public offering of New York Networks, Inc. Walsh represented that any investor who 15 invested before the public offering would become "very wealthy" after the public offering was 16 completed.

17 19. JENSEN and PRECIADO failed to personally inform investors that pursuant to 18 applicable securities law, the stock being issued to them was not freely tradable and was subject to 19 certain resale restrictions.

20 20. Walsh, JENSEN and PRECIADO assured investors that Walsh had closed
21 numerous other similar transactions while taking approximately twenty (20) other companies
22 public, and, in so doing, had made a great deal of money for investors in those other transactions.

23 21. Walsh, JENSEN and PRECIADO further told investors that similar public offerings
24 previously facilitated by Walsh had yielded an "average" return of approximately two and a half 25 times the investor's initial investment.

26

1 22. JENSEN and PRECIADO told certain investors that JENSEN and PRECIADO
2 themselves were investors.

3 23. Investors were informed that the public offering for New York Networks, Inc.
4 would be completed by December 2006.

5 24. In early 2007, investors participated in several informational conference calls that 6 were hosted by Walsh, JENSEN and/or PRECIADO. During the conference calls, investors were 7 provided several explanations for the delay in the public offering and were told of continuing
8 efforts being made to complete the acquisition of Mad Engine, Inc. and The New York Network,
9 Inc., by New York Networks, Inc.

10 25. The proceeds from the sale of stock and warrants were not used to acquire Mad
11 Engine or The New York Network, Inc.

12 26. Neither Mad Engine, Inc. nor The New York Network, Inc. were acquired and the 13 public offering for New York Networks, Inc. was not completed.

14 27. In 2006, JENSEN proposed entering into a consulting agreement (“agreement”)
15 with Walsh. Pursuant to the terms of the proposed agreement that was never signed by Walsh,
16 Walsh would pay Jensen a “Finders fee’s (sic) equal to 10% of the gross sales price of Units sold
17 to, by or through Consultants [JENSEN] . . . The agreement further set forth that JENSEN would 18 be entitled to receive stock warrants “equal to 20% of the number of Units sold by or through them
19 [JENSEN] . . .”

20 28. JENSEN and PRECIADO were paid for expenses incurred in connection with the 21 sale of common stock and warrants to investors and JENSEN, was directly or beneficially issued 22 425,000 shares of restricted common stock in New York Networks, Inc. for consulting work.

23 29. Notwithstanding general disclosures in the private placement memorandum
24 concerning sales commissions and finders fees, JENSEN and PRECIADO did not disclose to 25 prospective Arizona investors the payments described in the foregoing paragraphs.

26

1 final installment in an amount necessary to complete payment of the entire amount due with
2 accumulated interest. The installment payments shall be semi-annual and are to be received by the 3 Commission no later than the last day of December and June, beginning December 31, 2011, until 4 the entire restitution amount has been paid in full. Payments shall be made to the "State of 5 Arizona" to be placed in an interest-bearing account controlled by the Commission. Any principal
6 amount outstanding shall accrue interest at the rate of 10 percent per annum from the date of this 7 Order until paid in full.

8 The Commission shall disburse the funds on a pro-rata basis to investors shown on the 9 records of the Commission. Any restitution funds that the Commission cannot disburse because an 10 investor refuses to accept such payment, or any restitution funds that cannot be disbursed to an 11 investor because the investor is deceased and the Commission cannot reasonably identify and 12 locate the deceased investor's spouse or natural children surviving at the time of the distribution, 13 shall be disbursed on a pro-rata basis to the remaining investors shown on the records of the 14 Commission. Any funds that the Commission determines it is unable to or cannot feasibly disburse
15 shall be transferred to the general fund of the state of Arizona.

16 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, pursuant to A.R.S. § 44-2036, that Respondent JENSEN,
17 individually, and the marital community of JENSEN and Julie Shayne Jensen, jointly and severally, 18 shall pay an administrative penalty in the amount of $15,000.

19 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, pursuant to A.R.S. § 44-2036, that Respondent PRECIADO, 20 individually, and the marital community of PRECIADO and Linda Marie Preciado, jointly and 21 severally, shall pay an administrative penalty in the amount of $15,000.

22 Payment of the above penalties shall be made in full within six (6) months of the last 23 installment payment of restitution and shall be made payable to the "State of Arizona." Any 24 amount outstanding shall accrue interest as allowed by law.

25
26

1 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that payments received by the state of Arizona shall first be
2 applied to the restitution obligation. Upon payment in full of the restitution obligation, payments
3 shall be applied to the penalty obligation.

4 For purposes of this Order, a bankruptcy filing by any Respondent shall be an act of default
5 by that Respondent only. However, a bankruptcy filing by one Respondent will not be considered
6 an act of default by any other Respondent not filing for bankruptcy. If any Respondent does not 7 comply with this Order, any outstanding balance may be deemed in default and shall be 8 immediately due and payable as to the Respondent in default only.

9 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, that if any Respondent fails to comply with this order, the 10 Commission may bring further legal proceedings against that Respondent, including application to 11 the superior court for an order of contempt.

12 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, that no finding of fact or conclusion of law contained in this 13 Order shall be deemed binding against any Respondent under this Docket Number who has not 14 consented to the entry of this Order.
