To the People at the Az. Corporate Commission Who regulate utility rates,

Please do not let APS raise our electricity rates again. For years our rates have risen, it was always we need to keep up with the high demand. Well Arizona residents are struggling now with high unemployment and high food and energy bills. APS cannot lay that high demand lies on us anymore. 1 in 4 house are unoccupied do to foreclosures, strip centers are vacant and people are cutting down because of hard times. Please stand up for the people you work for and keep utility rates down. We the people of Arizona have supported APS a long time, now its time to help us. The last thing we want to here now is rates need to increase to keep up with Obama's big plan for renewable energy. Obama is not going to be around much longer and Hopefully his Cap & Trade failure goes away with him. Let the people vote .Almost 1/2 of our energy comes from coal. Lets keep Coal,gas,oil and nuclear. Drill here ,Drill now. Aside from the
