I am 71, single woman living only on social security. Living expenses, insurances for home, car, life, burial, medical & prescriptions doesn't leave much. Electric, gas, phone, dish, trash & water takes the rest. I spend too much already for water that I can't drink or cook with. I pay for bottled water, that I fill bottles every week. I buy bottled water to drink. Pay culligan for water softener, so I can wash clothes and shower in clean smelling soft water. I added them all up and I pay $60.00 per month. Already. I can't afford my water to go up.
