I am opposed to the granting of a rate hike for the primary reasons:

1. I own another property on a lot 6 times larger and using a lot more water. My water bill with my other property is one third what my water bill is with Global, and the water for
2. My monthly water bill with Global is also 3 times higher than the first home I owned in Phoenix even though the amount of water used is the same or smaller now since back then my kids were babies.

A rate hike is NOT okay

* copies of other water bills provided upon request
