Customer sent the following -

Dear APS Stooges,

After reviewing your ruling and comments from yesterday regarding the new fees on residential solar customers, I continue to be more embarrassed of Arizona politicians. Not only did you approve a completely unnecessary fee, but two of you voted against it only because you felt the fee was too low. You are pathetic group who does nothing to represent the great majority of voters who elected you. Instead you're nothing but puppets for APS and large corporations. Then you have the nerve to justify your outrageous actions by saying things like you're trying to protect poor old people who will have to pay more. Please! Does anyone actually believe such nonsense. We all know that the only thing you are protecting is APS' bottom line and their monopoly. APS simply does not want to pay a fair price for solar generated electricity and does not want any competition. I will do anything I can to make sure that none of you are reelected. You have no business in public office.

Sincerely,

Patrick Blanton
Phoenix resident
