Docket you wish to comment on: E-04230A-14-0011 et al (Merger-R14-2-803)
Case or Utility Name: Fortis proposed acquisition of TEP et all
Docket Number: E-04230A-14-0011
Position on Docket: Con

- 1)I disagree with foreign company acquisition of American Assets.
- 2)Acquisition statement indicates that customer satisfaction is necessary BUT primary goal is FORTIS stockholder value. As TEP customer I'd like to think that the fees I pay and the service I receive should be the primary focus, not stockholder value particularly by a foreign company.
- 3)What has TEP done to satisfy it's current debt. Have they tried focusing on its current market? When we first had solar installed it took a family friend via her friend at TEP to get our installation inspected by TEP. Why not have TEP and its affiliates think of reorganizing, reviewing or restructuring its finances instead of skipping out on their customer base?
- 4)Over the longer term what are the benefits, (I don't see any) for the U.S. A. in this proposed merger?

Thank you for reading this, obviously I'm not a financial whiz but concerned about the U.S.A. retaining valued companies and serving valued clients and working on and solving any internal business problems versus "selling out".
