REPLY COMMENTS OF SOUTHWEST GAS CORPORATION ON DRAFT RULES

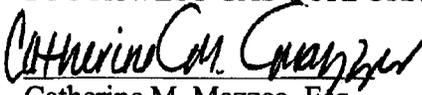

Southwest Gas Corporation (Southwest Gas or Company) hereby submits its reply comments regarding the Arizona Corporation Commission's Utilities Division Staff's (Staff) draft rules concerning the release of customer information, and privacy and confidentiality concerns related to smart meters (Customer Privacy Rules or Rules) that were published June 24, 2014.

Having reviewed the opening comments of other interested parties, Southwest Gas notes that many parties share the Company's position that the initial draft of the Customer Privacy Rules does not provide sufficient clarity and consistency and, in some instances, potentially stands to confuse customers and inadvertently unduly burden both utilities and the Commission. While Southwest Gas does not have any additional comments at this time, it does believe that the Rules can, and should, be modified and refined through workshops and further rounds of comments.
