SECTION 2.0 - RULES AND REGULATIONS (CONTD.)*2.5 Customer Deposits and Advance Payments (Contd.)*2.5.4 Refund of Deposits

Upon discontinuance of service, or when a customer establishes credit by other means, the Company shall promptly refund any deposit, plus accrued simple interest, or the balance, if any, in excess of the unpaid bills for the jurisdictional services furnished by the Company. A transfer of service from one location to another within the area served by the Company shall not be deemed a discontinuance of service with the Company if the character of the service remains unchanged.

When a deposit, with any associated interest, is applied to the liquidation of unpaid amounts owed to the Company, the Company will mail, or otherwise deliver to the customer, a statement showing the amount of the original deposit, plus any accrued interest, the amount of unpaid amounts owed to the Company liquidated by the deposit, plus any interest and the balance remaining due either to the customer or the Company.

Unless the Company has obtained sufficient factual information to determine that a customer is an unsatisfactory credit risk, the Company will promptly refund a customer's deposit, plus 6%, upon satisfactory payment of all proper charges for 12 consecutive months.

The Company will annually review accounts of customers with deposits and will refund deposits. At the option of the Company, a deposit plus accrued interest may be refunded in whole or in part at any time earlier than the times prescribed the previous paragraph.

In any event, if there is a balance due the customer after service is discontinued and a final bill is rendered by the Company, that balance shall then be due and payable within 10 working days to the customer without demand or notice from the customer. When a refund of the deposit cannot be made on the first attempt, the Company will make a reasonable effort to make the refund.
