ECAR Surcharge Docket E-01773A-12-0305 We are Trico Electric customers on fixed incomes. You people probably tell yourselves that a few dollars added to our electric bill monthly is no big deal. You probably never stop to think that we worked hard to earn those dollars and that they represent part of our lives. Please think a little about the cumulative impact of these small charges, effectively taking our lives a dollar or two at a time. Given the massive amounts of greenhouse gases generated by China and India, US output is actually miniscule. Current policies are essentially destroying coal as an energy source anyway, so please, can't you just leave us alone? One other thought: No doubt you will find some serious issue with, say, solar power, 20 or 30 years h and will come back to ding us some more. Please exercise a little forethought. M. Worman
