Nature Of Opinion:

Docket Number: W-03443A-15-0271

Docket Position: Against

The request for a 100% rate increase to the homeowners in Appaloosa Meadows II is outrageous! As a homeowner in this development receiving the services of Appaloosa Water Company, I find it to be ludicrous that Joe Cordovano has the audacity to request a 100% rate increase when he, as owner and CEO of said water company, has to this day not corrected the arsenic levels in the water he/his company supplies to this development. The said company, is still out of compliance with the Town of Chino Valley fire flow requirements. In fact, Appaloosa Water Company and Joe Cordovano is out of compliance with many other orders mandated by Arizona Corporation Commission. It would be logical if Appaloosa Water Company meets all compliances before any rate increase of any kind be even considered let alone approved. I believe that a 100% increase is Mr. Cordavano's cry for help. He is a sick man and needs professional psychiatric help.
