Comments for proposed workshop on water policy improvements on June 24, 2016.

- 1 Can a one page summary of the implications for water providers, business consumers and residential consumers be issued, assuming that water restrictions are implemented in 2017?
- 2 Can water providers be required to use asset/liability and income/expense accounting standards to report month-to-date (MTD) and year-to-date (YTD) activities?
- 3 Can water providers be required to update their accounting data daily, monthly and annually and make any public data available to consumers on the internet?
- 4 Can water providers be required to clearly publish what expenses are paid by providers and what by consumers?
- 5 Can water providers be required to clearly publish their methods of calculating their charges to consumers?
- 6 Can water providers be required to clearly publish their planned capital expenses for five years ahead, showing the impact on water and wastewater rates?
- 7 Can water providers publish details on their technology to refurbish existing pipes?
- 8 Can water providers publish standard methods of tracking plant performance?
- 9 Can the ACC publish the minimum number of consumers and revenue to justify the costs of starting separate new districts and communities?
