About Intervention The law provides for an open public hearing at which, under appropriate circumstances, interested persons may intervene. An interested person may be granted intervention if the outcome of the case will directly and substantially impact the person and the person's intervention will not unduly broaden the issues in the case. Intervention, among other things, enables a party to present sworn evidence at hearing and to cross-examine other parties' witnesses. Intervention is not required if you want to appear at the hearing and provide public comment on the Application, or if you want to file written comments in the record of the case.

To request intervention, you must file an original and 12 hard copies of a written request for intervention with Docket Control, 1200 West Washington Street, Phoenix, Arizona 85007.
