ARIZONA CORPORATION COMMISSION

Re: Rulemaking Proceeding on the Development of Transparency and Disclosure Rule RU-00000A-17-0035

Dear Chairman Forese, Commissioners Burns, Little, Tobin, and Other Interested Parties:

After reviewing the February 7, 2017, Correspondence from Commissioner Burns (the "Memorandum"), as well as his subsequent correspondence dated February 16th and 22nd, I am deeply concerned that any investigation or promulgation of rules governing the disclosure of political, charitable, lobbying, marketing, advertising, and other civic expenditures (collectively, "Contributions") is premature. This Commission should wait for the resolution of the pending judicial proceeding before we wade into legal concerns that are already being considered by a court.

Commissioner Burns opened this docket with the principal objective of developing a "robust" set of rules requiring disclosure of Contributions made by all "regulated monopolies" and their affiliates, stakeholders appearing before this Commission, candidates running for the Commission, sitting commissioners and their personal staff, and other "key ACC staff members." Memorandum at 2, 5-6. This docket also orders Arizona Public Service Company and Pinnacle West to comply with the outstanding subpoena issued by Commissioner Burns in the pending rate case. Correspondence from Commissioner Burns (Feb. 16, 2017), ACC Dkt. No. RU-00000A-17-0035 at 3; see also Correspondence from Commissioner Burns (Aug. 25, 2016), ACC Dkt. Nos. E-01345A-16-0036, E-01345A-16-0123.

Commissioner Burns relies on several legal conclusions that have never been adjudicated by Arizona courts. Specifically, he assumes this Commission has the authority to develop rules governing the disclosure of Contributions. He also suggests this Commission is imbued with the authority to compel these disclosures through a subpoena. I caution this Commission against proceeding based on assumed authority especially in light of pending litigation that squarely addresses this topic.

Last fall, Arizona Public Service Company and Pinnacle West Capital Corporation filed suit against Commissioner Burns challenging the validity of the very subpoena at issue in this docket. See Ariz. Pub. Serv. Corp. v. Burns, Maricopa Cnty Super. Ct. No. CV2016-014895 (filed Sept. 9, 2016). The proceedings were stayed for the last several months while the parties pursued settlement negotiations. I was hoping that the parties would come to a resolution without additional judicial intervention but it appears that the settlement efforts were unsuccessful and the parties have lifted their self-imposed stay. It is my understanding the scope of the suit may expand.

Where this leaves the Commission today, we do not know. The only certainty is that the outcome of this case will have lasting effects on our ability to direct persons before this Commission to disclose their Contributions.

It is for this very reason that I believe we should exercise restraint and acknowledge that the pending lawsuit is the proper place to resolve the legitimacy of the subpoena and the scope of the Commission's authority to require disclosure of Contributions under Arizona law. Why duplicate efforts and revisit issues that are already being resolved through the judicial system? Delayed intervention will only help us in evaluating how to best address the concerns raised in this docket.

I urge this Commission to stay the docket, cancel the scheduled workshop and vacate all deadlines until such time as the court proceeding concludes.

Sincerely,

Boyd Dunn, Arizona Corporation Commissioner
