ARIZONA CORPORATION COMMISSION

December 1, 2017

RE: AU-00000E-17-0079: In the matter of the Commission's Investigation and Promulgation of a Code of Ethics.

Commissioners, Interested Parties, and Stakeholders,

I am writing today to update you on our ongoing efforts to promulgate a Commission Code of Ethics.

Since our last workshop, I have been crafting a preliminary draft of the Code of Ethics. I am pleased to report that the initial draft will be filed in this docket and available to the public on December 29, 2017. Today, I can tell you that my first draft will be comprehensive. My goal is to propose innovative solutions for our unique Commission that do not threaten the legal tenets we are bound to under existing law.

I urge Commissioners, interested parties, and stakeholders to review this preliminary draft and file responses in the docket on or before January 19, 2018. Feedback during the drafting process is essential to the ultimate success of our Code. Productive comments ensure the final Code reflects the expectations we have for Commissioners moving forward.

I look forward to everyone's constructive responses, so we can make meaningful changes. Additional information regarding the timing and content of the revised draft will be provided following the January comment deadline.

Sincerely,

Boyd W. Dunn, Chairman of the Ethics Committee
