ORDER TO CEASE AND DESIST, ORDER OF RESTITUTION, ORDER FOR ADMINISTRATIVE PENALTIES AND CONSENT TO SAME BY:

DEAN A. SEVERNS
CHERYL E. SEVERNS
SEVERNS PROPERTIES, LLC
SEVERNS CAPITAL, LLC

Respondents DEAN A. SEVERNS ("SEVERNS"), CHERYL E. SEVERNS, SEVERNS PROPERTIES", PROPERTIES, LLC, an Arizona limited liability company, ("SEVERNS PROPERTIES"), SEVERNS CAPITAL, LLC, an Arizona limited liability company, ("J. DEAN") elect to permanently waive any right to a hearing and appeal under Articles 11 and 12 of the Securities Act of Arizona, A.R.S. § 44-1801 et seq. ("Securities Act") with respect to this Order To Cease and Desist, Order of Restitution, and Order for Administrative Penalties ("Order"). Respondents SEVERNS, CHERYL E. SEVERNS, SEVERNS PROPERTIES, SEVERNS CAPITAL AND J. DEAN admit the jurisdiction of the Arizona Corporation Commission ("Commission"); neither admit nor deny the Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law contained in this Order; and consent to the entry of this Order by the Commission.

I.

- 6. At all times relevant, SEVERNS was acting for his own benefit and the benefit and in furtherance of SEVERNS and Respondent Spouse's marital community.
- 7. SEVERNS PROPERTIES is an Arizona limited liability company organized on or about July 5, 2005.
- 8. According to Commission records, DEAN A. SEVERNS and CHERYL E. SEVERNS are the sole members and managers of SEVERNS PROPERTIES.
- 9. SEVERNS CAPITAL is an Arizona limited liability company organized on or about April 27, 2007.
- 10. According to Commission records, SEVERNS and CHERYL E. SEVERNS are the sole members and managers of SEVERNS CAPITAL.
- J.DEAN is an Arizona limited liability company organized on or about November9, 2006.
- 12. According to Commission records, DEAN A. SEVERNS, CHERYL E. SEVERNS and others are managers and members of J.DEAN.

- 13. SEVERNS, SEVERNS PROPERTIES, SEVERNS CAPITAL and J. DEAN may be referred to collectively as "Respondents".
- 14. Beginning in or around 2006, the Respondents offered and sold securities in the form of promissory notes and/or investment contracts (hereinafter "Investments") to at least 28 investors, the majority of which reside in Arizona.
- 15. At all times relevant, the Respondents were not registered with the Commission as dealers or salesmen.
 - 16. At all times relevant, the Investments were not registered with the Commission.
- 17. SEVERNS PROPERTIES, SEVERNS CAPITAL, and J.DEAN, through their members and managers, offered and sold Investments to investors. The investment group was first called Millionaire Bound Investment Group ("MBIG"), then Investors-4-Investors ("I4I") and finally Severns Partners.
- 18. SEVERNS invited investors to join these investment groups and made statements regarding the Investments to the investors.

A. MILLIONAIRE BOUND INVESTMENT GROUP (MBIG)

- 19. Beginning in or around January 2006, SEVERNS formed MBIG and offered the investors the opportunity to invest in a fund that would purchase a single property, an apartment complex, to renovate it and then resell it as condominiums. The project was Mountain View Apartments ("Mountain View").
- 20. SEVERNS held investor meetings for actual and/or potential MBIG investors in which SEVERNS discussed the investment and the MBIG group.
- 21. SEVERNS presented to the investors Mountain View as the property that he selected for the MBIG group investment. Additionally, he presented goals for the MBIG group to achieve and needs that the MBIG group could satisfy. Those goals and needs included the following: "increase net worth, to leave a legacy/generational education and wealth, retirement, security, life force, inspiration, life style, money leverage, guidance, and freedom."

- 22. SEVERNS failed to provide material information regarding the evaluation of the investment. The MBIG presentations included listing the "DEAL EVALUATION" factors for the investment (such as highest and best use, acquisition price vs. appraised value, cash flow, terms, future potential, short term vs. long term and realtor application).
- 23. The MBIG investors were not told the interest rate of the loan used to purchase the property, the length of the loan, whether the property would be refinanced to support the rehabilitation, the timeframe for completing the rehabilitation, contingency plans for cost overruns, and marketing plans to sell the individual condominiums.
- 24. Many of the MBIG investors were unsophisticated and inexperienced in investing. SEVERNS used a reference to Mother Theresa, biblical quotes, and his own pursuit of money to discuss investing. SEVERNS suggested the book, "The Millionaire Next Door," to the investors as a reading assignment.
- 25. SEVERNS told MBIG investors that the investment was safe. SEVERNS told the MBIG investors that he did not need or want their money ([he] "had millions in personal wealth") and had access to two hundred million dollars ($200,000,000) in private money through a mortgage broker.
- 26. SEVERNS told MBIG investors that their promissory notes would be secured by the purchase of the real estate.
- 27. SEVERNS promised MBIG investors a rate of return of 10-14% for a term of 360 days in addition to a return of 10% as part of a profit pool, depending upon the success of the investment. SEVERNS or SEVERNS PROPERTIES, through SEVERNS, issued unsecured promissory notes with an interest rate of 14% to the MBIG investors. The 10% profit pool was not included in the promissory notes.
- 28. SEVERNS told MBIG investors that he had many years of experience in real estate investing, including investments in duplexes and fourplexes. However, SEVERNS failed to disclose to at least one MBIG investor that he did not have experience converting an apartment complex into condominiums to sell as individual units.

- 29. SEVERNS failed to provide information sufficient to give investors full disclosure regarding the experience of those persons hired to convert the Mountain View apartments into condominiums. SEVERNS told at least one MBIG investor that he would hire an experienced contractor to manage the reconstruction of the Mountain View property. SEVERNS hired a licensed contractor with no history of managing the conversion of an apartment complex to condominiums to oversee the Mountain View project.
- 30. SEVERNS instructed MBIG investors to make their funds payable to SEVERNS PROPERTIES. On or about April 2006, SEVERNS PROPERTIES became the owner of the Mountain View property. SEVERNS acted as the buyer's agent, arranged the financing, and signed the real estate contracts on behalf of SEVERNS PROPERTIES. None of the MBIG investors were listed on the property deed.
- 31. SEVERNS, on behalf of SEVERNS PROPERTIES, contracted to purchase at least three other properties using MBIG investor funds: another apartment complex to be converted into condominiums, a parcel with a storage building on it, and vacant land.
- 32. At least two of the additional properties contracted for purchase resulted in the loss of MBIG investor funds. In one instance, investor funds used to make the escrow deposit were lost on a property that did not close. In another instance, investor funds used to make monthly mortgage payments were lost when the property was foreclosed upon.
- 33. SEVERNS told at least one MBIG investor prior to investing that he would not earn commissions through the use of investor funds or money on the investor funds. SEVERNS earned a commission on at least one property while acting as buyer's and/or seller's agent on behalf of SEVERNS PROPERTIES.
- B. INVESTORS-4-INVESTORS (I4I), SEVERNS PARTNERS, and SUBSEQUENT INVESTORS

- 34. Beginning in or around November 2006, SEVERNS renamed MBIG in favor of a new real estate investment group called Investors-4-Investors (I4I) to offer and sell Investments. A majority of the MBIG investors were merged into I4I without their consent.
- 35. SEVERNS continued the investor meetings as I4I. As compared to the MBIG investment group, there were at least two changes to the I4I investment group: an increase in the number of investments being offered and the introduction of the concept of a Power Team, whereby existing investors would bring in new investors and their funds to I4I.
- 36. SEVERNS told at least one I4I investor that the investments were safe regardless of market conditions. SEVERNS told at least one I4I investor the structure of the investments made them "bullet proof," that investor funds were secured by real estate assets, that he did not need any of the investor money, and that he was worth millions.
- 37. SEVERNS told the I4I investors that "[I4I] would not go under contract without at least 30% of total financing from Investors 4 Investors, therefore I will personally invest a maximum of 70% from my personal funds." One property went under contract for $800,000, but $744,000 was financed with unsecured promissory notes.
- 38. SEVERNS told at least one I4I investor prior to investing about a return matrix which showed what an investor could expect to earn as a return if they invested with him. The matrix showed a return of 8% to 30% based upon investing an amount from $10,000 to $500,000.
- 39. The I4I investors received unsecured promissory notes with an interest rate of 14% for a term of 360 days or unsecured promissory notes with an interest rate of 14% in addition to a payment of between 0-2 points. SEVERNS directed the investors to make their funds payable to SEVERNS PROPERTIES. SEVERNS, on behalf of SEVERNS PROPERTIES and SEVERNS CAPITAL, issued the unsecured promissory notes. SEVERNS did not disclose to at least one investor that one entity would receive the funds but another entity would be the issuer of the unsecured promissory note.

- 40. Beginning in or around June 2007, SEVERNS changed the name of the investment group from I4I to Severns Partners. In addition to the investors who joined MBIG, I4I, or Severns Partners, SEVERNS solicited additional investors (the additional investors may be referred to as "subsequent investors," and MBIG, I4I, Severns Partners and any subsequent investors may be collectively referred to as "investors").
- 41. SEVERNS failed to disclose to at least one I4I, one Severns Partners investor and one subsequent investor prior to their investment that there had been a loss of investor funds in investment properties.
- 42. SEVERNS offered at least one I4I investor opportunities in properties, including vacant land, an apartment complex and an office building. SEVERNS selected the properties for the investments and signed the contracts on behalf of SEVERNS PROPERTIES.
- 43. SEVERNS told at least one I4I investor the investment funds were applied to the purchase of an office building, and told at least one subsequent investor and one Severns Partners investor that their money was used for an unspecified real estate project. However, the I4I investor did not receive any form of documentation indicating the investor funds were applied to the purchase of the office building. The subsequent investor and Severns Partners investor were not told which real estate project their funds were used for.
- 44. SEVERNS told at least two subsequent investors and at least one Severns Partners investor their investment funds were safe. SEVERNS told at least one of the subsequent investors he had millions in wealth to pay off the promissory notes.
- 45. The majority of the investors receiving unsecured promissory notes issued from SEVERNS CAPITAL had interest rates of 14%, while some had 8%, in addition to between zero and two points and a term of 360 days.
- 46. One subsequent investor purchased an unsecured promissory note from J.DEAN in order to earn interest to fund the investor's home remodeling project. SEVERNS, on behalf of J.DEAN, issued a promissory note with an 8% return on funds and a due date of 360 days.

J.DEAN did not pay interest and did not return the principal after 360 days.

C. GENERAL ALLEGATIONS

- 47. Many of the investors did not have readily available funds to invest. Some investors funded their investments by using their homes by taking out a Home Equity Line of Credit ("HELOC") and/or withdrawing the equity from their homes using a first deed of trust, and using funds in IRA accounts. At least one I4I investor was shown a chart showing the gains from investing even after paying the HELOC loan.
- 48. SEVERNS PROPERTIES, through SEVERNS, purchased or attempted to purchase properties using investor funds.
- 49. At the direction of DEAN A. SEVERNS, CHERYL E. SEVERNS sent investors quarterly statements showing the investors their investment activity. The Statement of Account showed the date invested, amount invested, interest rate percent, accrued interest earned, interest paid, date paid and account balance.
- 50. DEAN A. SEVERNS and CHERYL E. SEVERNS, at the direction of DEAN A. SEVERNS, controlled the Respondents' accounts. This included reviewing bills, paying bills, writing checks, transferring funds, and paying investors, including interest payments, HELOC payments, and the return of one investor's investment funds.
- 51. SEVERNS told investors that the investors could call their unsecured promissory notes due and the notes would be paid. When the investors called their funds, SEVERNS offered to pay draws (representing future profits from the investment), offered employment with the company, offered to issue new promissory notes with revised interest rates, offered to pay the interest on the investor HELOC loans, or offered to pay investors when the Mountain View projected was refinanced in 2007.

- 52. SEVERNS, on behalf of SEVERNS PROPERTIES, refinanced the Mountain View property on or about November 2007, but did not return any funds to an investor who was promised a return after the refinancing was completed.
- 53. Some of the investors received funds to pay their HELOC payments for a few months, but then the payments stopped because DEAN A. SEVERNS did not have the funds to continue making payments.
- 54. SEVERNS, on behalf of SEVERNS PROPERTIES, sold at least one of the properties in or around January 2008 that was purchased with investor funds. SEVERNS entered into an agreement whereby the sale included a lease carry back provision on a portion of the sales price. None of the proceeds from the sale or the lease carry back were returned to the investors.
- 55. Respondents failed to disclose to at least one investor that they used investor funds to pay operation expenses of other entities which SEVERNS was a member and/or manager, as well as use a portion of the investor funds for the expenses of SEVERNS and CHERYL E. SEVERNS (including but not limited to, car loans, mortgages and travel), and to use investor funds to pay, on behalf of an investor, the outstanding balance of an investor's purchase of a vacation and/or resort property.
- 56. The Respondents failed to disclose to at least one investor that investor funds were used to repay at least one other investor's investment and to make investors' HELOC payments and interest payments.
- 57. The Respondents did not provide at least one investor with any offering documents, financial information, or the basis for the projected costs and/or projected sales regarding property purchases financed by the investors.
- 58. The investors lost a majority of their investor funds. At least one subsequent investor is now facing the loss of their home.

59. The Respondents offered and sold $3,762,957.22 in promissory notes and/or investment contracts, returned $281,841.85 to the investors, for a total of $3,481,115.37 that is owed to the investors.

II.

- 1. The Commission has jurisdiction over this matter pursuant to Article XV of the Arizona Constitution and the Securities Act.
- 2. Respondents offered or sold securities within or from Arizona, within the meaning of A.R.S. §§ 44-1801(15), 44-1801(21), and 44-1801(26).

Respondents' conduct included:
 - a. Failing to disclose that a portion of the investor funds would be used for the expenses of SEVERNS and CHERYL E. SEVERNS, including but not limited to, the payment of car loans, mortgages and travel, and to use investor funds to pay, on behalf of an investor, the outstanding balance of an investor's purchase of a vacation and/or resort property;

- f. Misrepresenting that the entity receiving the funds was not the same entity that issued the unsecured promissory notes;
- g. Misrepresenting that SEVERNS would not earn commissions through the use of investor funds or money on the investor funds;

- j. Misrepresenting that investors would make substantial profits by investing.
- 6. SEVERNS directly or indirectly controlled SEVERNS PROPERTIES, SEVERNS CAPITAL, and J.DEAN, by or through membership and/or as manager. 10. Respondent SEVERNS acted for the benefit of the marital community of SEVERNS and Respondent Spouse and, pursuant to A.R.S. §§ 25-214 and 25-215, this Order of restitution and administrative penalties is a debt of the community of SEVERNS and Respondent Spouse.

III.

THEREFORE, on the basis of the Findings of Fact, Conclusions of Law, and Respondents' consent to the entry of this Order, attached and incorporated by reference, the Commission finds that the following relief is appropriate, in the public interest, and necessary for the protection of investors:

Payment shall be made in full on the date of this Order. Any amount outstanding shall accrue interest at the rate of 10% per annum from the date of this Order until paid in full. Payment shall be made to the "State of Arizona" to be placed in an interest-bearing account controlled by the Commission. The Commission shall disburse the funds on a pro-rata basis to investors shown on the records of the Commission. Any restitution funds that the Commission cannot disburse because an investor refuses to accept such payment shall be disbursed on a pro-rata basis to the remaining investors shown on the records of the Commission. Any funds that the Commission determines it is unable to or cannot feasibly disburse shall be transferred to the general fund of the state of Arizona.

Docket No. S-20634A-08-0519

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, pursuant to A.R.S. § 44-2036, that Respondents and the marital community of SEVERNS and Respondent Spouse, shall jointly and severally, pay an administrative penalty in the amount of $150,000.00. Payment shall be made to the "State of Arizona." Any amount outstanding shall accrue interest at the rate of 10% per annum from the date of this Order until paid in full. The payment obligations for these administrative penalties shall be subordinate to any restitution obligations ordered herein and shall become immediately due and payable only after restitution payments have been paid in full or upon Respondents' default with respect to Respondents' restitution obligations.
